

Patient Care Services (PAT) are positions that are involved in the delivery of primary, secondary or tertiary healthcare beginning with the initial patient encounter and ending with payment for that care.